

Restoration Manager Position Announcement

Intermountain Aquatics is seeking a highly self-motivated and experienced individual with a Great Attitude and strong passion for Natural Resources Stewardship to fill its Restoration Manager Position. Leadership ability is greatly desired and should be balanced with good decision making and communication skills. Mechanical aptitude and the ability to work effectively and efficiently under sometimes challenging and adverse field conditions is also required.

Job responsibilities include:

- Work with IMA Principals and field staff to coordinate, implement, monitor and maintain all IMA habitat restoration, revegetation and farming projects.
- Manage small land management projects from start to finish – sales and marketing, initial site visit, plan, estimate, implementation, monitoring, maintenance.
- Determine field staffing needs, hire and manage seasonal labor so that they are efficient, happy and cost-effective.
- Keep IMA facilities, equipment, properties etc. well maintained and tidy, make recommendations on sales and purchases of equipment. Keep detailed inventory.

Education: B.S. in Natural Resources Related Discipline

Other desirable qualities

- Crew Leadership Experience
- CDL or experience hauling heavy equipment and a clean driving record
- GPS/GIS mapping skills
- Basic computer skills (Microsoft Office Suite)
- Idaho Weed Applicators License
- Landscaping and/or other related revegetation experience
- Mechanics, welding
- Farming and ranching experience
- First aid training

Compensation: Based on Experience.

Interested candidates should email a cover letter and resume to info@intermountainaquatics.com attn Jeff by Tuesday, March 1, 2011. Hiring will occur on or before March 11, 2011.